

Shape that Lasts as Long as Your Clothes

"THAT suit always looks well on him." That's what you want men of judgment to think when they see you. Everyday dressiness, week in and week out, depends mostly on lasting shape on your clothes.

Shape is as much a part of Clothcraft Clothes as the cloth itself. It's sewed and held in every stitch—it's tailored in to stay. It does not depend on pressing. Pressing alone gives shape, but will not hold it. To last, shape must be in these clothes before the iron touches them.

All-wool cloth, thoroughly tested and shrunk, added to skillful tailoring, explains why Clothcraft Clothes hold their shape as long as the clothes last.

This is only one of the points covered in the Clothcraft guarantee that makes these clothes such wonderful values at $10 to $25.

When are you going to give us a chance to show you these insured clothes?

Made and guaranteed to hold its shape and good looks - the Clothcraft Blue Serge Special No. 4130 at $18.50

JUDGE B. J. BETHURUM.

NOT A CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS, BUT A CANDIDATE FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE.

From reliable reports, many of Judge Bethurum's Somerset friends are anxious for him to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress and especially so because they feel that he is under obligations not to oppose Judge Kennedy for Circuit Judge. They say that four years ago Judge Kennedy, who was then a candidate for the Republican nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney without opposition, yielded his place to Judge Jervis, and thus relieved Judge Bethurum of all opposition for Circuit Judge, and made it possible for him to become Circuit Judge, for 6 years without either effort or expense, and that he cannot afford to oppose Judge Kennedy.

But not so for Congress. The way is both open and free. Caleb Powers has declared he will not again be a candidate. There are no announced candidates, hence Judge Bethurum's friends see a splendid opportunity for him. Wayne County Outlook.

The above article was published in the Wayne County Outlook, an independent in politics, the editor of which is the willing tool of H. C. Kennedy, who is seeking the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge against Judge B. J. Bethurum, and no doubt was written by Kennedy himself. Although written by Kennedy the article was inspired by him and others who are rank enemies of Bethurum, and is designed to mislead the people as to the true intentions of Judge Bethurum. As stated, the parties who inspired that article, are not friends of Judge Bethurum, and would not support him for Congress or for any other office. It is grossly misleading as to the wishes of Judge Bethurum's Somerset friends regarding his future political aspirations as his Somerset friends, throughout the judicial district want and expect him to remain upon the circuit court bench of the 28th judicial district, where he has presided during the past four years with such marked ability, and where he has given such universal satisfaction as judge; and while they recognize and know that he would ably and creditably represent the Eleventh Congressional District in the House of Congress, yet his record on the bench is such, that the great masses of the people all over the district are unwilling that he should retire from the bench, and are almost unanimously for him to continue to serve the people in that capacity. And they are rejoicing over the fact that he has regained his health, and has consented to make the race, which means that he will continue to serve as judge. The said article seems to insinuate that Bethurum's friends think that he is indebted to Kennedy for withdrawing as a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney four years ago. This is a gross misrepresentation. Bethurum's friends throughout the district are against Kennedy, and are loyal to Bethurum. They know that Kennedy withdrew from that race, not at the suggestion of Bethurum, but upon his own initiative; the reasons which he gave could be repeated but the people care nothing for the reasons that prompted his withdrawal from that race. It is sufficient to state that he did not withdraw at the suggestion or by the procurement of Judge Bethurum. This put Judge Bethurum under no obligations to Kennedy, and Kennedy himself has recognized this fact in the past by repeatedly urging Bethurum to make the race for judge, and assuring the Judge of his loyal support in his race, and by continuing to urge Bethurum to run for re-election, until within the last few months, when he, himself, in his own mind, decided that he was judicial timber, and became a candidate for judge with the backing of Judge Bethurum's bitter political enemies at this place. They suggest Judge Bethurum for Congress to mislead the people. Judge Bethurum will not be a candidate for Congress, but at the proper time will announce himself as a candidate for re-election to the Circuit Judgeship. Everybody knows that the people of this district, who believe in fair play and who recognize ability, want their judge to possess it, will loyally stand by him in the coming contest for the Circuit Judgeship.

It is the universal custom throughout this State and has been for years for a Circuit Judge to be given an endorsement by a re-election if his services on the bench are giving satisfaction. Kennedy himself has repeatedly said, within the last year, that Judge Bethurum was making a splendid record as judge and should be re-elected. Now will the people of this district make an exception of Judge Bethurum and deny him an endorsement, just to please and tickle the vanity and gratify the ambition of one man, because he suspects that he is timber out of which a Circuit Judge may be made?

Judge Bethurum is a clean, moral, sober, honest, upright, fearless and impartial Judge, and has held the scales of justice equally poised, without regard to politics or religious creed, and has faithfully lived up to his oath of office, and has never swerved from his duty. Somerset Herald.

BRODHEAD.

On account of sickness, The Hamiltonian Society were compelled to postpone the dates of their play until Saturday night of the 17th, at which time the people of Brodhead and neighboring towns; and the country will be permitted to see one of the best and funniest plays ever staged, in this part of the Country by an amateur troupe. This being a Western play makes it a thrilling type, and as the name implies "The Waif or The Pet of The Camp" would suggest a very strong character that will be acted by Mrs. L. M. Brown in that natural manner which never fails to impress the most critical, Wallace Haggard as usual will play the part of the leading Hero and his equal is always hard to find, as well as Walter Robins who is at home on the stage with the part of the Villain. Miss Jewell Francis will also act the other important part of the second female character. The names of the parties acting the two black faces we beg to allow you to guess when you see the play, but as for "Negroes" they have no equal to be found even in the whole Ethiopian race. R. J. Shivel as master of the Camp will play a much more important role than ever before, in fact every character is such a strong one and the play in general so good, that words forbids a description that will satisfy any one, with what they will be able to see and enjoy by coming to see this play at the time mentioned. Reserved seat tickets will be on sale at Chas. C. Davis Drug store Mt. Vernon, Lyons Bros. Drug store, Crab Orchard, and Robins Drug store, Brodhead, as early as the middle of the week. Miss Tempest Ward attended a house party, given at the home of Misses Grace and Pearl Felds at Stanford. Mrs. Vula Reynolds and Mrs. Oils Frith spent a few days with their sister, Mrs. Pearl Proctor at Wildie—Miss Bert Storm of Keavy, is staying with Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Storn, and going to school here. Mrs. S. L. Tate has returned to her home at Sweetwater, Tenn. after spending the past two months with her mother, Mrs. Linda Benton. Misses Ella Carson and Gertrude Martin have returned to Maryville, Tenn. after spending the holidays with homefolks. J. N. Marlow is here from Jackson spending a few days with homefolks. Miss Myrtle Murray is up from Crab Orchard spending a few days with relatives. Mrs. Walter Robins is numbered among the sick this week. Miss Ada Ward returned home Friday, after spending a week with relatives and friends in Livingston. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Owens have returned home after visiting in Junction City and Danville for the past week. Beginning next Monday, a revival will be held at the Methodist church by the pastor, the Rev. Richie. He will have help by a very able minister, but we are unable to recall his name at this time. Everybody is invited to attend these services. The school resumed work Monday, with the same teachers, except F. L. Tueton, C. Byron Owens is taking charge of that department. A number from here have been attending Court at Mt. Vernon this week. Don't forget the play at hall over Citizens Bank. Remember the date Jan. 17.—The merchants of the town held a business meeting in the Directors room of The Citizens Bank Thursday evening at 7:30 and discussed at length the possibilities of a commercial Club for Brodhead, and what could be accomplished by the same. This is certainly a step in the right direction, a small town loses many opportunities to better the town in general by not having a medium thru which matters can be brought to the people and discussed in a business like way. There were a number of good suggestions offered to the number present which is under careful consideration, and which if they work out as we believe they will, other towns will have cause to open their eyes wide to see what we are doing down here, you may look out when the people of Brodhead unite on any one thing, they never have nor never will have "failure" stamped in their foreheads. In unity we find the most strength, and while many of us can not see like the other fellow, in religion and politics, but we can meet on one common level that may promote the general welfare of all and it is a poor business man, and a very selfish one that cannot compromise his own opinion sometimes, to help his town when it is without material injury to himself. Details of this meeting will later appear in these columns.

It seems to be an impossibility to form laws that will keep out whisky selling demons in mens shape coming here from the cities of other states and selling the dirty soul destroying stuff to men and boys or to any one who can scrape up enough pennies to buy it. There is one of these human beings traveling for a New Albany Indiana, whisky house that comes to this place at least once every month hunting up and searching out victims of that drink habit to further add to their deplorable condition adding fuel to the flames by furnishing them with that awful destroyer of morals and mud. This party was arrested here some time back and tried before county judge, but it appears that the laws protect him in his nefarious work instead of punishing him. He claims to only take orders but the trail of the serpent can be seen whenever he comes to our town. There ought to be some way of checking this shame less thing of allowing more sorrow and heartaches made by this interloper who cares naught for the tears, troubles and hopelessness of widows, wives, husbands, fathers brothers and sisters of his victims who have a craving for the devilish stuff, this wolf is scattering among them. Many of them are literally hunted up by him, who have made efforts to shake off the habit. There must be some way to rid the town of this pest and a way will be found.

BRISTOL TO LEXINGTON

BRISTOL, TENN., Jan. 3rd.—In Colonial days, when American civilization was young, the great movement westward was across the Blue Ridge and thence westward along the Virginia-Tennessee boundary, thru Cumberland Gap into Kentucky. It was this route that Isaac Shelby, the first governor of Kentucky, and Daniel Boone, the pioneer hunter, travelled when they moved westward from "the Watauga Settlement." The Tennessee-Virginia boundary line took the same direction, the inclination being to reach the gap in the Cumberland range of mountains. This is still the most direct route from the Southeast into Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, and a modern stone highway over this old "Wilderness route" is just as essential to present day conditions, with multiplying automobiles, as was the old "Wilderness Road" to the hardy pioneers.

Next in importance to the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railway which courses the mountains on a direct north and south line, and which is soon to give Kentucky, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri and the great lake region a quick route to the far south, is the proposed Bristol-to-Lexington (Ky.) highway. Such a highway, leading along the Virginia-Tennessee border and thru Cumberland Gap, will bring not only Lexington, but Louisville, Cincinnati and other cities in that direction, in closer touch with the south and east and will be a much sought route by automobile tourists. This movement, coupled with a movement now being inaugurated, to make Bristol the northern terminus of the "Crest of the Blue Ridge Highway," means that travel from the west this way over the new and direct route will find it convenient to speed southward from here along the crest of the Blue Ridge into the South Atlantic states. This Crest of the Blue Ridge into the South Bristol by the building of only fifty-three miles of highway through the counties of Watauga, in North Carolina, and Johnson and Sullivan in Tennessee. Johnson and Sullivan counties have already graded a portion of this road, and steps are now being taken looking to the completion of the road in those counties. The course of these two roads leads through territory that was made memorable by the American revolution. King's Mountain, where Gen. Isaac Shelby and John Sevier struck a great blow for American independence, when they, with an army of hardy backwoodsmen, routed Ferguson and his men, thus winning in a contest that marked the turning point in the Revolution, adjacent to the "Crest of the Blue Ridge Highway." With the building of these roads, the people of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana will have a direct automobile route to the scenes made memorable by the struggles of the pioneers, who blazed the way for the march of civilization westward in this country. The route will be noted also for its scenic beauty, as it traverses the Cumberland and Appalachian ranges, passing over that portion of the mountain where the Virginia and Southwestern Railway passes thru the wonderful Natural Tunnel, in Scott County, Virginia. The Bristol to Lexington Highway is surveyed to pass very near this great tunnel, which is one of the most remarkable freaks of nature to be found in any part of the world.

ACTION CONFIRMED

CONVICTION OF LABOR LEADERS IS UPHOLD IN COURT OF APPEALS AT CHICAGO.

New Trials Granted Six officials of Union—Cases May Be Carried To Highest Tribunal.

Western Newspaper Union News Service. Chicago.—The sentences of 24 of the labor union officials convicted in Indianapolis of conspiracy to transport dynamite were confirmed by the United States circuit court of appeals of the Seventh district. Six of the 30 who appealed were granted new trials. They are: Olaf A. Tveitmo, of San Francisco; William McCain, of Kansas City, Mo.; Fred Sherman, of Indianapolis, Ind.; William Bernhard, of Cincinnati, O.; James E. Ray, of Peoria, Ill., and Richard H. Houlahan, of Chicago. Counsel for the 24 within 30 days will petition the court of appeals for a rehearing on new legal points. If that is denied they will take the case to the supreme court of the United States.

MINISTER FIGHTS FLAMES.

Camden, N. J.—Rushing half-shaven out of a barber shop when he learned that his church was afire, Rev. Michael Di Lejl ran into the blazing edifice of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and fought the flames until the arrival of the firemen. The fire started from a Christmas tree that was being dismantled coming in contact with a lighted candle on the altar. The blaze rapidly spread to all parts of the church, and when the firemen arrived they found the priest bravely trying to quench the flames single-handed at the risk of his safety. The damage was small.

100 MEN MEET DEATH.

Winnipeg, Man.—Dashed to death on the rocks in the Fraser river, British Columbia, or swept to their doom by the swift current, was the fate of 100 laborers employed by the Grand Trunk Pacific railroad, according to Angeles Pugliese. He is one of 25 who managed to escape when the flatboat in which they were being transported across the river was wrecked on a rock. Pugliese reached Winnipeg. He says the 25 who escaped were all injured. The tragedy occurred in British Columbia, west of Ft. George.

It's about as difficult to describe these new clothes as to write about the prettiest girl at a Leap Year Party. You've got to see her with your own eyes. Maybe you'll like her—if you don't there are others. So, if one suit doesn't please you, we've another. It's a question of taste. Prices? That lies with you. Rev. Stockbridge of Baltimore, has been in Mt. Vernon the past week, looking the field over relative to accepting the pastorate of the Presbyterian church. He preached an excellent sermon last Sunday evening and will preach again next Sunday, both morning and evening.

Tuesday night was the regular annual election of officers of the Commercial Club, and the result was the re-election of the old officers, and a vote of thanks of the club, to those officers for the splendid and untiring efforts put forward in behalf of the club. The officers are: U. G. Baker, President; Chas. C. Davis, Vice-President; and James Maret, Sec'y Treas.

The various county officers were inducted into office Monday, and from the manner in which they have started off, one would take them to be old hands at the business. They are interested in a successful administration. This requires the support of the people. To this end we pledge our best efforts and cooperation.

F. F. Robins, of Brodhead, was reappointed Deputy Clerk.

H. H. Baker, Fred Hayes, Chint Lear, Tom French, W. R. Dickerson, compose the board of Equalization, which met this week. More than the usual number of raises have been made.

All kind of cleaning, pressing, hat blocking, dyeing and repairing done at a reasonable price. Opposite Court house.

One of the big accomplishments of our Commercial Club was the banishment of petty town politics. They picked out a ticket and put it thru regardless of and without the name of any political party.

The big blast put off at Mt. Vernon quarry on 27th of June, first, is still furnishing stone for the crusher and will last until March, when another mammoth blast will be ready to explode and shake the earth.

Protracted meeting will begin at the Mt. Vernon Baptist church Monday Jan. 12th, at 7 p.m. Services each day at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 7 in the evening. Rev. Don Q. Smith of Lexington will assist us. Every body invited.

Plans are already being made for putting on the banner fair of Rockcastle at Mt. Vernon next August 5, 6 and 7th. The people are interested in this fair, there being more stockholders than probably any other organization of its kind in the state and it is growing bigger and better every year.

Harvey Owens wishes to state, in these columns, that Ida Lewis Model has taught the best and most successful school the colored people of Mt. Vernon district have had in many years and he with nine tenths of the patrons of the school earnestly desire her services for the next term.

TOWN TRUSTEES. The town board of trustees, the Marshal, Police Judge were inducted into their respective offices on Monday last. Dr. A. G. Lovell who was elected in November as a member of board did not qualify as it was thought his holding a place as trustee of graded school would make it incompatible. S. C. Franklin was appointed by Judge G. M. Ballard to fill the vacancy. Mr. Franklin was named chairman pro-tem and F. L. Durham, was elected permanent chairman of the board. James Maret was appointed clerk. The board took up the question of license for pool tables and placed the rate at $100. for first table and $1. for each additional table.

Glasgow, Ky. Dec 30 13. Editor Mt. Vernon Signal, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Dear sir: I wish to express my appreciation through your columns, of the many letters of condolence which have come to myself and children in almost every mail since Mrs. Duke died.

Dear friends, your sympathy has been especially comforting, because of the tenderness of your expressions, and the large number expressing themselves, so many, that a personal letter to each, would be a lengthy task, and long delay of my response.

I will go back into the pastorate the children and I will keep house, and try to bear our loss bravely, emulate the noble life of our loved one, and to put all the good into this world we can.

May Gods richest blessings rest upon you all, and richly reward you for every kindness shown His servant, handmaid, and their children.

Remarks of U. G. Baker, President Mt. Vernon Commercial Club

AT ANNUAL ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Another year is gone. 1913 is history. The year held much that was good for us all. It taught that business grows more exciting every day. That success is not an accident. Our business and professions require hard work and unremitting attention.

Our Commercial Club is just one year old this evening, but quite a big kid for its age. It seems to me that our Commercial Club has done more for ourselves, our town and our county, than anything we have ever attempted before. It has brought us into closer touch with each other, made us better friends, better business men and better citizens.

Our Commercial Club has obliterated our little, mean, low-down town politics; taught us to stand as a unit for the good of our town and community. It has made great strides toward the "Boone Way" and everything points to our final success in building the great Highway. It has put Mt. Vernon on the map. It has made an Electric Light Plant for Mt. Vernon a certainty, and here many weeks we shall be up to the minute in that respect. I contend that we have made great strides this year in the matter of buildings, schools, churches and any number of things which add to the comfort and prosperity of us all. We face a condition of good business and fair prices.

The Tariff and Currency questions are settled facts—the income tax does not worry any of the members of our Club, and business ought to be good—not a boom year, perhaps, but good, steady, solid business. If we can but continue in the way we have started out we shall be able to lift old Mt. Vernon out of the rut and set her on the solid foundation.

This evening we are going to elect our officers for the ensuing year, and I confidently hope that you will not make the same mistake you made cue year ago when you elected your president (myself).

Gentlemen, I do feel that we owe a vote of thanks to Mr. Maret, our Secretary, for his tireless and successful efforts in behalf of our Club.

The stock holders of the Peoples Bank, met Monday and elected directors and officers for next year. The officers are, U. G. Baker, President, J. P. E. Drummond, V. P., F. L. Thompson Jr., Cashier, C. C. Cox, Asst. Cashier. Directors: W. J. Sparks, U. G. Baker, J. C. Griffin, R. G. Moore, S. D. Lewis, F. L. Thompson Jr., and Judge L. W. Bethurum.

This year has been a very prosperous one, the bank having made over 13 per cent, 8 per cent of which was declared as dividend, 2 per cent placed to surplus and 2 per cent charged to furniture and fixtures, leaving a small amount as undivided profits. Bethurum & Lewis were elected Attorneys for the bank.

The following statement of President U. G. Baker read before the stockholders meeting is by request of the directors published, as follows:

The President said, in his address to the stockholders: "1913 has been our banner year." "Great gains have been made in deposits and amounts deposited." "We are pleased to report this very satisfactory increase in business, and take this occasion to thank the stockholders, directors, our best of friends and customers for their liberal patronage and good will, making this increase possible."

It is, indeed, very gratifying to believe that our efforts and service we have endeavored to give have been appreciated. We are led to believe this from our large increase in business and new depositors coming to us each week.

As the years come and go, our convictions grow stronger that the people generally appreciate and now more than ever, a high class Bank, a conservative Bank and one, run on real banking principles, the character of which can not be questioned, and one in which they can place every confidence.

Our prospects for 1914 are far brighter than ever before. We welcome any criticisms or sugges-

HOME WEDDING

Miss Sue Gregory Robertson and Mr. William Temple Lewis Married Last Night.

The wedding of Miss Sue Gregory Robertson and Mr. William Temple Lewis was quietly solemnized last night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. C. Robertson in Park drive.

The ev. Dr. S. H. Lovelace performed the ceremony in the presence of the two immediate families and a few close friends.

The only attendants were the maid of honor, Miss Irene Vogt, and the two little flower children, Miss Virginia Doll and Master Richard McDaniels, who scattered the petals before the bride.

Mr. Grover Giles was Mr. Lewis' best man. Miss Ruth Duncan sang "The Bridal Chorus" from "Midsummer Night's Dream" prior to the ceremony.

The bride, who entered alone, wore a wedding gown of point lace and chiffon over white satin. The lace was an heirloom, which had been used on wedding gowns for three generations. The bridal veil of illusion was made with a Juliette cap, caught with sprays of lilies of the valley. The bride carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bride's only ornament was a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom.

The maid of honor was attired in a pink crepe de chine with an over-dress of lace. She carried an arm bouquet of Killarney roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Duncan's costume was a pink tulle and she carried a French bouquet of Killarney roses and lilies of the valley.

The ceremony was followed by a reception.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will go to house-keeping in Park drive.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr.
Hughes Would Die, But
One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die.
I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good.

I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught
for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches
since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

BRODHEAD, KY.
Greetings of the New Year 1914,
to the Editor of the Mt. Vernon Signal, and his great family of readers, and to all our fellow laborers, in the Kingdom of Christ.
Dear Brethren:—

May we all enter the New Year, with high hopes and enlarged vision. This is a time of greatest possibilities. The greatest need now for us all, is to be able to see things in the light of the twentieth century surroundings, may God help each one of us, that we may be able to meet up to the needs of the hour, in our different kinds of work.

I take this method of wishing this great family a happy New year.

As we look back over the last twelve months, we all have much to be thankful for.

Of course, there have been some things for nearly all of us, which have been unpleasant, and many of us have suffered losses hard to bear. But taken all together, however, there have been more of good than of evil, and we can now say: "Hitherto the Lord hath helped me."

The thing to do now is for us to look forward and press onward.
Whatever the past might have been, it is gone, and we cannot recall it. But the future is before us. As we begin this new year, let us all ask God to forgive all our sins of the past, ask in faith, and take it for granted that for Christians sake, they are all forgiven. Then let us all go forward, seeking better things. That there will be evils or each of us during the coming year, we know, but remember, it is not on these that we are to set our minds, so to do would be no remedy for them. I think it best to live in the thought of good to come, for then we suffer from the evil, which does come, but once. We do not suffer by anticipation.

David's way of looking to the future when he wrote the beautiful 23rd Psalm was this: "I shall not want. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life." Is not this invaluable attitude the secret of happy living? I think it is. Now in the coming year we all want success,
in our business, let our calling be whatever we are engaged in. If we expect it, we must plan accordingly. Let us see ourselves in our vision as having reached success. Then let us go after it, looking, and expecting God's goodness and mercy to follow us to the way, let us bridge them.

If we see lions let us slay them.
If the thought comes to us, that death is possible, let us be able to say: "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for God will be with me." And if so, then we will safely pass. If it should be Gods will that we should pass on this side (which I hope we all may) it will be well. If we should cross death's river to the other side still all will be well. For if we are living as we ought, I know it shall be better there, than it can be here.

Now in conclusion, I wish the Editor of the Mt. Vernon Signal with his great family of readers a happy New Year, and I do hope and pray that each of us will so live the year 1914, that we can say whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lords. If so his mercy and goodness will follow us, while we live. So dear brethren there are great things before us, and let us all live as to enjoy them in advance and as we go on,
let us all as much as we can help others into the ways of peace.
Kind word and helpful deeds, are easy things, and they will make both us and others the happier.
To one and all we say again, we wish you a happy New Year.

Respectfully,
A. J. PIKE
